

WELCOME
TO
PIEDMONT REGIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

MEMBERSHIP in our association requires that you continue to educate yourself not only for the sake of the consumers we represent but also for the benefit of your fellow REALTORS® with whom you will be constantly interacting. Membership in your local Association also provides you with the privilege of membership of State and National REALTORS® Associations

BEING LICENSED to represent others involves an enormous amount of responsibility and liability. What you don't know is never excusable and can involve many undesirable consequences.

EDUCATION is the answer to protecting the consumer, yourself and your profession. Expect to invest your time and money in learning. The return on this investment gives great dividends.

MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE DATA is the collective information from all listing entries in our data system. All REALTORS® and Appraisers depend on this data in order for all of us to know the market, provide CMA reports, appraisals and generally make a living. As a new REALTORS® you are entrusted with providing accurate and complete information as you participate in this system. MLS of Choice is CANOPY MLS of Charlotte.

LEARN AND EARN your way to professionalism, income and the satisfaction of knowing you're becoming the best you can be in this ever interesting and challenging profession.

New Member Orientation Mandatory Training

The Piedmont Regional Association of REALTORS® New Member Orientation is mandatory for all new members.

In accordance with the Piedmont Regional Association of REALTORS® Bylaws (Article V, Section 2, Qualifications): "As a condition of membership, the applicant agrees to complete a course of instruction covering the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association, the Bylaws of the State Association, and Constitution and Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS®."

PRAR New Member Orientation is a four hour training session in both Association business and in the Code of Ethics.

Once application and member fees is received notification will be given of the next orientation date. If you are unable to attend that scheduled orientation, you will be placed in a probationary status and scheduled for the next orientation.

Failure to attend the second scheduled orientation will result in the new member's application being revoked and all REALTOR® privileges terminated. No monies are refunded. And there will be a reinstatement fee of $50.00

As a member of PRAR it is mandatory for all members receive Two and a half hours of Legal Liability/Code of Ethics training every three years. The required training will be established every three years by the Board of Directors. This Mandatory Training will be held 3 to 5 times per year providing several opportunities for you to meet the requirement

I have read and understand the above policy regarding New Member Orientation and Code of Ethics Training.

I also understood that this application and the fees stated include membership in the Local, State and National Association of REALTORS® as listed below. I agree to the established fees as long as I remain a member of this Association.
